MANSION HOUSE,

Corner of Main and St. Clair Streets, Frankfort, Ky.

A. J. WEST, late of Cynthiana, and MRS. E. P. GRIMKS, of the Olympian Springs, respectfully announce to their frenchs and the put lite generally, that they have taken this late and commoditions establishment, and are prepared to entertain their guests in the best manner. The house is eligibly situated, being about equidistant from the Steamboat Landing and the capitol grounds; is now undergoing a thorough refitting and reporting, in such a style as will make it rank among the very best Hotels in the Western Country.

The proprietors will endeavor, in all things, to promote the comfort and convenience of those who may honor them with a visit; and hope that their long experience in the business will enable that no navit a liberal share of public favor.

The louse is well adapted for a Hotel; the rooms are large and confort big: the family rooms in the private apartment are unsurpassed, in neatness and comfort by any house in the State. Guests and their baggage are taken to, and from the Railroad depot and Steamboat Landing in coaches, free of charge. All the Stages necessarily pass by, or start from this house, daily.

NAUTILUS (Mutual Life) Insurance Company, No. 58, Wall Street.—After mature deliberation, the Trustees have become convinced, and the experience of old established companies fully warrant the conclusion, that the advantages of Life Insurance on the Mutual plan, may be extended and diffused with greater convenience to a large class of contributors, and with equal security to all the assured, by requiring no greater amount of the premium to be paid in cash than the company will require to meet its engagements with promptitude and fidelity.

will require to meet its engagements with promipritude and fidelity.

It has accordingly been determined that in all cases where the annual premium shall amount to $50, and 60 per cent thereof shall have been paid in cash, an approved note may be given for the remaining 40 per cent, payable twelve months after date, bearing six per cent interest. The interest to be paid annually, but the principal not to be called in unless the exigencies of the company require it, giving sixty days notice, and then only by assessments pro rata to the evtent that may be required to meet the engagements of the company.

It is confidently anticipated that a system, the operation of which is so fair and equitable, so well calculated to place the benefits and blessings of Life Insurance within the reach of all, and at the same time enable each contributor to share equally and fully not only in its beneficent security, but also in its profits of and at the same time enable each contributor to share equally and fully not only in its beneficent security, but also in its profits of accumulation, will meet, as it is believed to deserve, the favor and confidence of the public.

The particular advantages offered by this company, are:

1. A guarantee capital.

2. An annual participation in the profits.

3. No individual responsibility beyond the amount of premium.

4. Those who insure for a less period than life, participate equally in the annual profits of the company.

The Nautilus company confines its lusiness exclusively to Insurance on Lives, and all Insurance appertaining to Life.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

IN SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, January 27.

The Senate was opened with prayer by Rev. Mr NORTON, of Episcopal Church.

A message was received from the Governor, announcing that he had approved and signed sundry bills which originated in the Senate. Petitions were presented by Senators Butler, Evans and Walker, and referred to appropriate com-

Leave was given to bring in the following bills,

Mr. TODD-a bill to amend an act reducing into one the several acts concerning the Lexington, Versailles and Frankfort Turnpike company.

Mr. THORNTON-a bill to amend the act in corporating the Lexington, Harrodsburg and Perryville Turnpike company; and committees appointed to prepare and report said bills.

The unfinished report of the committee on Execu tive Affairs, in the case of the Secretary of State was taken up and the reading of the report of the majority of the committee concluded. The separate report of Mr. Harris, the chairman of the commit tee. was also read.

The following is the resolution reported by the

Resolved, That although the Senate considers the nonrinee, George B. Kinkead, well qualified to dis charge the duties of Secretary of State, that it does not advise and consent to his nomination, because the said office of Secretary is not vacant.

Mr. Thornton, dissented from the reports and resolution of the other members of the committee. On motion of Mr. CRENSHAW, the several reports were ordered to be printed, (1000 copies) and the subject referred to the committee of the whole and made the special order of the day for Wednes day next.

Messages were received from the H. R. by Mr Meriwether, informing the Senate that the II. R. was ready to progress with the election for U. States Senator, and that the same gentlemen were in nomination for that office as upon yesterday, and Messrs. James and Wall were directed to communicate the same information on the part of the Senate to the

The SPEAKER laid before the Senate the annual report of the Lunstic Asylum, which was ordered to be printed, and referred to committee on Education. Leave was given to Mr. EVANS, to bring in a bill for the benefit of Jas. Jenkins of Warren county; said bill was introduced and passed. Also, to Mr. BRISTOW-a bill to legalize the August term of the Christian county court. Mr. J. SPEED 'SMITH presented the memorial of a portion of the citizens of Madison county, remonstrating against the repeal or modification of the law of 1833, prohibiting the introduction of slaves into this State. He remarked, that the memorial was couched in respectful language, and declared the opinion of the memorialists, that "the law had its origin in the purest principles of philanthropy, and rested on the wisest principles of political econd my." He had no doubt the memorial was sent with a double aspect. It was intended, in part, to have its influence upon the immediate representatives of the memorialists, and also upon the General Assembly. If it had been intended for the representatives alone, it would have come in the shape of instructions-but as a memorial it was wished to have a double influence. So far as the representatives from that county are concerned, the memorial arrived nearly two weeks too late. Each representative had taken his stand and given his vote, and I suppose, sir, there will be no change from grounds umed by them respectively. I cannot determine what effect it might have produced, had it reached the memorialists are entitled to much consideration CALFE, were Messrs. A. G. Botts, Durbin, Hall, and respect—and I have complied with their re-Hord, Procter, Talbutt, Thomas and Young—8.

Mr. BRADLEY, from Committee on Eurollments, reported sundry bills as duly enrolled, and the Speaker affixed his signature to the same. On motion, the Senate adjourned.

The following proceedings of the Senate on Tuesday, were inadvertently omitted in yesterday's

Leave was given to bring in the following bills,

Mr. EVANS-a bill extending the law permitting holders of land warrants to have surveys made, and return plats to Register's office. Mr. WILLIAMS-a bill to incorporate the Kentucky Female Orphan school. Mr. PATTERSON-a bill for the benefit of

Mr. MAYHALL—a bill authorizing a special term of the Green County Court. Committees were appointed to prepare and report

Mr. MARSHALL, by permission-reported a bill from Select committee, authorizing a special term of the Green County Court; passed.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Scott. After the journal had been read, Petitions were presented by Messrs. Wheeler, Graves, Procter, Harrison, J. Irvine and Mitchell, which were referred to appropriate committees.

Mr. WHEELER reported a bill to allow an additional Justice of the Peace to Pendleton county, which being amended to apply to Hart county also,

A message was received from the Senate, announcing the passage of sundry bills, &c.

On motion of Mr. ABELL, the bill from the Senate, authorizing a special term of the Green County Court, was taken up and passed

On motion of Mr. McHENRY, the bill of the House, changing the terms of the Jessamine Circuit Court, amended by the Senate, was taken up, and the amendment concurred in.

On motion of Mr. JOHNSTON, a bill from the Senate, for the benefit of the surveyor of Marshall county, was taken up and passed.
The SPEAKER laid before the House the report of the Directors of the Lunatic Asylum, which was Mr. IRELAND reported a bill for the benefit of the trustees of Williamstown; passed. The chairman of the committee on Enrollments reported the enrollment of sundry bills, which thereupon received the signature of the Speaker.

Reports from Standing Committees. The chairman of the committee on Propositions and Grievances, reported a bill from the Senate, to add a part of the county of Hopkins to the county of Caldwell, with an amendment. The amendment being adopted, the bill passed.

Also-a bill from the Senate, for the benefit of the trustees of the town of Princeton; passed. Also-a bill for the benefit of the trustees of the town of Russellville; passed. Also-a substitute for the original bill, for the removal of the county seat of Mason county.

Mr. MERIWETHER remarked upon the provis ions of the substitute proposed by the committee.— The original bill provided for the immediate removal of the county seat. The substitute submits the matter for a final decision to the voters of the county, and has ample provisions to test the legality of er having forgotten to put in the pills. Allow me

The substitute being adopted, Mr. WILLIAMS moved to commit the bill to the committee of the whole, for Saturday next. Mr. WALLER opposed the commitment, and explained the bill as presented by the committee. It was a fair and impartial bill, and would bring about a final settlement of this matter. He had understood that a substitute had been prepared by a venerable gentleman from Mason county. The bill reported by the committee was preferable to the one to which he referred. After further remarks from Messrs. Williams and Procter upon the proposed commitment,

Mr. BROWN continued in reply and in favor of the commitment. The debate was further continued by Messrs.

SMITH, McHENRY and MERIWETHER when the motion to commit was lost. Mr. McHENRY moved an amendment substitu ting 200 for 100, which was lost.

Also-an amendment to bind the Mayor and again for ten years, if the vote should be decided against Maysville, which was lost; when the hour of twelve arriving, the House took up the Orders of the day.

On motion the House proceeded to ballot for a United States Senator.

A message being received from the Senate an nouncing the readiness of that body to proceed with the election, the balloting commenced.

To the Legislature of Kentucky:

GENTLEMEN:-A few winters ago, an acquaintance of mine, a member of the General Assembly, who had been a little too assiduous in his attentions to mince-pie and roast turkey, purchased at a drugstore in this place a popular patent cathartic medicine. The article which he received in exchange for his quarter, had the external appearance of a bona fide box of purging pills; there was the signed and sealed envelope to guard against counterfeits, and, there was the sheet containing the directions for use, and the usual history of remarkable cures. But on breaking the parcel open, my accomplished and constipated friend discovered-somewhat to his annoyance, for it was bed-time and the stores were all closed-that the box was empty, the manufacturto remark to you, that a similar oversight has been committed by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky. The office of State Librarian was created years ago, and a salary for the officer has annually been appropriated by law; a chamber in the State house has also been set apart for, and styled 'the State Library;' but Gentlemen, your predecessors have always forgotten to furnish it with books; -- of course, you do not dignify with this name, the assortment of Acts and Journals in law-calf binding, which are marshalled in rows on your library shelves.

This continued oversight on the part of the General Assembly is surprising; for there is perhaps scarcely one of your honorable body who has not at times felt the need-were it only for reference-of a collection of standard books. Your library does not even contain so indispensable a work as an Couusel of Maysville not to agitate the question Encyclopedia. If a member wishes to learn whether Guy Fawkes was the inventor of gunpowder or only a heavy dealer in the article, whether it was Cheops or Cephrenes who built the great pyramid, or how many inches go to a bushel of coal, he must ransack the town in search of some lucky owner of the needed volume. Moreover, during the long nights of the session, there must be many hours in which some of you feel the want of access to a well furnished library, to renew your acquaintance with the giants of learning, or to call up reminiscences of youthful days over the enchanting pages of Fielding or Scott: for, it must be confessed, Frankfort is somewhat deficient in means for amusing her visitors: concerts, balls, and exhibitions are 'lew and far between,' the theatre (alas!) is undergoing the final process of evisceration, and the gay society of our olooming virgins and dazzling widows, presents no attraction to the stately senator who has left a fair

There are perhaps a few States of less importance, whose sayings and doings are never heard of beyond their borders-Lilliput Delaware for instance, famous only for Mr. Noah's threat of putting her into the discredit of possessing no State library; but the great and influential State of Kentucky ought not to have reached the fifty fifth year of her existence without having accumulated in her Capitol a collection of books for the use of the legislature and the officers of government;-remember that I protest against printed Journals, Indexes, and Statutes being called books.

As I have called your attention to this oversight, permit me Gentlemen, to suggest a remedy. Let there be annually elected by joint ballot two or more commissioners, who shall constitute, with the Governor, a board of library commissioners, of which the Governor shall be the president ex officio; and ard library books. This sum would create the nucleus of a collection, which a small annual appropriation would swell, in a few years, into the dimensions of a library worthy of our enlightened and

LAW NOTICE.

Extra copies of the Commonwealth, containing the correspondence between the committee on the part of the Democratic members of the Legislature, and Messrs. Underwood, Letcher and Metcalfe-and the 1st days balloting for United States Senator, can be had at the counting-room of the Commonwealth Office.

UNITED STATES SENATOR .- Both Houses of the Kentucky Legislature proceeded on yesterday at 12 o'clock, to ballot again for United States Senator, to succeed the Hon. James T. Morehead. The same gentlemen were in nomination as on yesterday. The balloting resulted as follows:

until to-day at 12 M. We are indebted to the Hon. G. Davis for a copy of his speech on the Mexican war, and the President's Message. FIRE.-We learn from the Shelby News, that the jail of Shelby county was destroyed by fire on the morning of the 21st. It is not known how the fire originated, but is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. FIRE IN BOSTON-ONE HUNDRED HOUSES BURNT! A tremendous fire occurred in Boston, on the 21st, which destroyed all the buildings in that part of the city, bounded by Haverhill, Medford, Causeway, and Traverse streets. The buildings destroyed, were principally workshops, or dwellings of mechanics and laboring men. Not less than seventy families, many of them very poor, were rendered homeless. The night was very cold and the wind was blowing almost a gale.

ULTIMATUM OF MEXICO.-We learn, says the Washington City Fountain, that our Government is in possession of the ultimate conditions upon which Mexico will consent to make peace with the United States, and that the Government will accede to them, if Congress will enable the executive to meet the views of Mexico.

SANTA ANNA AND HIS TROOPS .- Mr. Gillespie, a prisoner lately released by Santa Anna from confinement in prison at San Louis, into which he had been thrown some weeks since, has returned to Matamoras and reports the number of troops at San Louis to have been at the time of his release 27,000, with an additional force of about 10,000 somewhere in the vicinity. This large force was in constant drill, and many foreign officers were said to be engaged in the service. Great enthusiasm and the most perfect subordination prevailed in the Mexican lines.

LATEST FROM GEN. TAYLOR .- The Washington Union says, that despatches have been received from Gen. Taylor, dated 22nd of December, near Monterey, representing that he had left that place on the 15th for Victoria, having previously put in motion attached to Mexican reports, but we think, in this the troops destined for that point. But, on the evening of his arrival at Montemorelos, a gers to serve during the war. From the most audespatch arrived from Gen. Deeming the force there and soon to be at Saltillo, quite sufficient to repel any diemonstration at this season from San Luis Potosi, Ten. Taylor did not think it worth while to throw f orward Gen. seems at last aroused to a proper sense of the necessity of taking some effectual measure for restoring and preserving law and order in the insubordinate districts. Nearly a whole week was consumed in discussing the question, yet they seemed to have formed no definite plan for the accomplishment of the end, desired. Some were for special courts, others for placing the country under mantial law. Finally however, the House referred the whole question to to the committee on the Judiciary, and the Senate passed a bill, authorizing a special term of the Circuit Court in Massac county for the trial of persons charged with crimes, and empowering the Governor, to send an armed force to protect the court; for the expense of which, the sum of $10,000 was appropriated.

In noticing this matter, the Sangamon Journal, makes the following just remarks.

"One fact, which should be borne in mind by all those who may be led to the violation of law, even for what they suppose a just object, has appeared in this case. The very men who led in the first linchings are now here asking for protection against the mob! They assisted to raise the storm, but failed to control it. So it will ever be. Our safety is alone in sustaining the supremacy of the laws."

"AID AND COMFORT."-The Charleston Mercury gives the Northern and Western Democracy a severe dressing for their course, and the refusal to vote the tax on tea and coffee. It adds:

They refuse, with the Whigs, to alter or modify the Independent Treasury act, very proper in its arrangements when the Government is merely receiving the taxes through the customs, and paying it out again in its ordinary operations, but entirely unsuited without modification to the emergency of war, when the Government is to be a large borrower. By this means they render it impossible for the Government to obtain money on loan, except at a usurious interest, which Congress will never authorize. If this is the case, as is distinctly set forth by the Secretary of the Treasury, we should like to know how these Democrats differ from the Whigs in their opposition to the war. In words they differ a little, but in policy they are iden-

The Mercury endeavors to show that the consequences of this course must be disastrous to the uccess and honor of our arms, and remarks:

" If such is to be the result, we think, while pursuing such a line of policy, these Democrats might spare the Whigs, and Whigs might spare the Democrats, the further discussion of that nice point of political casuistry-which of them do most 'give aid and coinfort' to the enemy. They are all op-posers of the war—opposers of the administration—and the very best friends of the Mexicans."

We agree with the Mercury that the tea and coffee tax ought to be laid, but its own party friends, who could impose the tax if they choose, are responsible for its non-imposition, holding as they do decided majorities in both Houses of Congress.

Prospectus of the Cincinnati Atlas. BY STEVENSON, LOOKER & TODD.

THE undersigned, having purchased of N. Guilforn, Esq., the entire establishment, embracing the Atlas Newspaper. Job Office, &c., will take charge of it on the first day of January, Office, &c., will take charge of it on the first day of January, 1847.

It is hoped the new arrangement will prove entirely satisfactory to all the former pations of the Atlas.

The Editorial Department of the paper will be under the direction of TIDMAS B. STEVENSON. long experienced as a political writer, and late editor of the Fraukfort Common wealth, the Whig Journal at the Capitol of Kentucky. The departments of Commerce, News, Literature, City Items, &c., will be faithfully attended to by a strong corps of Regular Assistant Editors; while also, in all departments of the paper, the editor will be sided by numerous occasional contributors and correspondents. Regular correspondents will be employed at Columbus, Washington, and other important points; so that the paper will be made, in its entire scope, if a liberal outlay of enterprise, industry, and other mense can accomplish such a result, an interesting and useful Journal, worthy of the confidence and support of Politicians. Farmers, Manufacturers, Mechanics, Merchants, Famiers, and General Readers.

Every arrangement will be made to secure and publish the earliest News from every quarter.

The political character of the Atlas will be Will G—thorough Will G. It will be every thing for the Whig cause, nothing for Men. It will sacrifice no principle of the Whig party, no interest of the country, for any considerations of present or remote expediency. Taking it for granted that the nominee of the Whig party for the Presidency will be worthy the support of the Whig party for the Presidency will be worthy the support of the Whig party for the Presidency will be worthy the support of the Commercial Department of the Atlas will be under the support.

The Commercial Department of the Atlas will be under the direction of Mr. A. PEABODY, of the Merchants' Exchange, and will, we hope, offer peculiar claims to the patronage of business men of every practical pursuit of life—Farmers, Traders, Merchants, Manufacturers, Mechanics, &c. &c. It will present daily reports of the Ciucinnati Market—sales and prices; a weekly review of the Market; the imports and exports by river, canals, and railroad, with a weekly tabular exhibit of the same; and also all other matters connected with the commerce and trade of our city. Notices of Domestic and Foreign Markets of latest dates will regularly be given, with statistical and such other commercial information as is necessary to make the Atlas a thorough Commercial paper.

commercial information as is necessary to make the Atlas a thorough Commercial paper.

Identifying our entire interests with this great city, we hope to prove ourselves worthy of, and cenfidently expect to receive, a liberal share of patronage, in the way of subscriptions to the Atlas Advertisements, all scrits of Job Work, &c. &c. All the proprietors of the Atlas being Natives of the West, we feel confident that we understand, and can in some measure promote, the vast interests of the great Mississippi Valiey.

But knowing that the paper itself will be judged by its contents, we refer to it; being perfectly willing that it shall be approved or rejected according to its merits or demerits.

The Atlas is published on a Bouble Super-Royal sheet, of su perior paper, with new Minion and Nonparell type, on the terms following:
